CRI Network

Some information received yesterday from the Christian Religious Network.

Dear CRI Network friend,

We have a vacancy for a paid RI instructor in the Ipswich Region - please see below for details.

This is something new we are trialling, as due to Covid we have had around 18 instructors/assistants step down during this time for various reasons. This paid position will certainly never take the place of our wonderful volunteer RI instructors, but will help to fill long-term gaps so quality RI can continue in more schools.

Please feel free to forward this email to anyone you think would be suitable for this position.

Thank you for your ongoing support,

CRI Network

Christian Religious Instruction (CRI) paid position available

CRI Network Ltd partners with churches to support CRI programs in schools across the Greater Ipswich region, with the aim of offering quality lessons to every State Primary School every week so students (whose parents choose) are able to question, wonder and explore the Christian faith.

The position involves teaching Christian RI in State Primary schools where our valued volunteer instructors are unable to cover classes.

Applications close Monday 21st September 2020.
